42 Kitchen & Bath Design Awards 2018

Richer colors and wood tones, asymmetrical design elements, a mixing of metals and textures, unique ceiling treatments and a move away from the all-white kitchen were trends seen in the winners of KBDN's 2018 Kitchen & Bath Design Awards.

80 ISLAND PORTFOLIO Making a Statement

Kitchen islands are often the figurative and physical focus of a kitchen design, doing double duty as a workspace and gathering area, and acting as an ideal place to showcase both aesthetics and function.

88 PRODUCT TREND REPORT Functional Furniture

Today's vanity designs meld form and function, with a spotlight on clean lines, interesting aesthetics, a greater variety of size options and a blend of open and closed storage solutions.

96 PRODUCT REVIEW Glorious Flooring

While neutral ceramic tiles and woods of all shades continue to be popular, bolder patterns and colors, rustic pieces such as reclaimed wood and industrial elements such as concrete have upped the ante in today's flooring selections.

Cottage Comfort

DANIEL CONTELMO

Daniel Contelmo Architects, Poughkeepsie, NY

This bright and airy bath by Daniel Contelmo of Daniel Contelmo Architects takes advantage of views of the outside meadow and pond. Since the master suite is located at the back of the house and projects out farther than the other living spaces, privacy was maintained despite the use of large windows, which bathe the room in natural light.

Sophisticated traditional style, charming cottage touches and rustic elements are blended harmoniously in the space, and these also blend with the environment outside. To allow different styles to work together, the color palette was kept simple.

White washed rustic wood covers the walls and ceiling, providing the ideal serene backdrop to the pieces throughout the room. Interest was added through texture and material, rather than color.

A custom floating vanity in a neutral gray makes a statement without being overwhelming, allowing the statuary marble countertop to be the star. A rectangular undermount sink from Kohler provides an elegant pairing with the Perrin & Rowe faucet with country spout and cross handles from Rohl. A ZBistro round mirror from Restoration Hardware and Kohler Jacquard round ring pulls add a bit of glamour.

On the far wall, a Kohler Tresham toilet sits next to the Kohler Sunstruck Tub with Fluted Shroud, nestled beneath the large corner windows. The Ammara Dual Supply Tub Filler adds a touch of bling.

Statuary marble shower tiles make a bold statement in the shower and are easily viewed through the custom glass enclosure. A Rohl 24" Ceiling Mount Showerhead in Polished Nickel provides a luxurious element. Artistic Tile's Motor City Circles Ice White Gloss Glass Mosaic floor tiles add texture and shine to the space.
